

Romancing Romans

10:05

Late arrive

Take a whiff of city life

Hotel room full of animals

Bugs and roaches playing

Bad to go, they only tell

Whatcha want, you're staying

I'm not into romans, that's why

I just can't believe my eyes when you go by

Running out

Observed by crowds

Reach above, I really doubt

Grooving music all around

Dancing floor was empty

Checking out what's going on

Someone told it's not allowed today

I'm not into romance, that's why

I just can't believe my eyes when you go by

Endless mile

Losing smile

Up and down the city dial

Looking out for tourist signs

Pocket full of mussels(?)

Only with a muscle ache

And my head is thirsty

I've had enough of walking round this tourist town

I've had enough of walking round this torture trail
